OMA'S RESTAURANT

Breakfast Menu

Willkommen

The translation of the German word Oma is Grandma.
In our Oma's Restaurant we strive to recreate the warmth and loving hospitality that you experience during a visit to Grandma's house.

Oma's Restaurant serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner, featuring German entrées and continental cuisine.

Make sure your server is aware of any allergies or dietary needs that you have so we can serve you safely.

Enjoy our Oma's traditions and recipes!

OUR STORY...

In 1927, William & Emilie Bickel Zehnder and their 8 children purchased a boarded up building and remodeled it to look like Mt. Vernon. They called their restaurant Zehnder's. In 1950, the Zehnder family purchased the restaurant across the street. My grandparents, William "Tiny" Zehnder Jr. and his wife, Dorothy Hecht Zehnder, became the new managers of the restaurant called the Bavarian Inn.

Today, Zehnder's and Bavarian Inn are two separate businesses. My cousins operate Zehnder's. My Uncle Bill and his wife, Karen; and their daughter, Amy manage the Bavarian Inn Restaurant, while their other daughter Katie manages Frankenmuth Gift Shops Inc. I manage the Lodge with my sister, Martha.

On the menu cover are the grandmas who played an important role in the development of the Bavarian Inn. The first Grandma, Emilie, found her home in the kitchen at Zehnder's Restaurant. Without her leadership and cooking skills, our family would not have succeeded.

My grandmother, Dorothy, received her cooking skills as a young girl from her mother, Hedwig, and her grandmother, Christianna, while growing up in Reese, Michigan. Our chicken, dressing, pastries, breads, and other Bavarian Inn signature items, are produced at the Bavarian Inn Restaurant and are then transported to the Lodge for final preparation.

The Bavarian Inn Zehnder family is now in its fourth generation. Our family is proud to serve your family. Please enjoy your stay, thank you for coming, and hurry back!

Auf Wiedersehen!!!
